

Spring 2019

HA 706/906 Seminar in Art History:

Art Here, Art Now

Instructor: Professor David Cateforis

*Thursdays, 2:30-5:00pm, Spencer Museum of Art 207

This seminar will immerse participants in the dynamic contemporary art world of the Lawrence-Kansas City region. We will meet and converse with artists, curators, critics, dealers, and collectors, and visit artists' studios, commercial galleries, and art museums, as well as view works of art in public spaces. Each student will write an original research paper on some aspect of contemporary art in the Lawrence-Kansas City region with a view toward eventual publication or public presentation.

*Note: The seminar will likely involve some weekend field trips outside of the regular class meeting time, so participants will need to have flexibility in their schedules.

Please contact the instructor (dcat@ku.edu) for more information or for permission to enroll.
